Introduction

The Place

Buddha Hall, a place of divine peace and highly spiritual value, is situated in Bhagsu, Dharamsala and is a kilometre away from McLeod Ganj. McLeod Ganj, is the seat of exiled Tibetan spiritual leader, the 14th Dalai Lama and attracts the large number of seekers and students in various fields of spiritual activities.

Buddha Hall offers opportunity for the community of divine belief to participate in practice, develop and celebrates creative activities. It plays a positive role in helping to strengthen, develop and expand the quality and range of stress releasing and achieving mental and physical relief.

The centre was established in the year 1996. The basic vision behind the establishment of this centre was to provide the glimpse of art, music, ethnicity and originality of Indian culture through various programs and efforts including courses and programs in Yoga, Meditation, Reiki and Crystal Healing.

Holistic Teacher – Usha Sharma

Between 1994 and 1997, two Masters initiated Usher into Reiki, Tibetan guru Tangent Chugiak and Dr. N. K. Sharma, Reiki grandmaster. She also learnt healing from her father-in-law, a well-known spiritual writer. Since then, she has been practicing healing and teaching Reiki, Meditation, Tarot reading and Holistic Healing to students from all over the world.

Usha was born in Rishikesh and grew up as the daughter of an army officer, traveling all over India. She was educated mainly in Agra and graduated (B.A) in English, Psychology and Sociology from Nainital University in Uttranchal. In 1992, at the age of 21, she married into a highly spiritual family who has inspired her on her Path.

She has a very strong and unique connection with the Universal Energy. As a Reiki Master, Teacher and Healer, she is a very perceptive person, which is combined with love and compassion (Karuna). For the last 15 years, she has lived in Dharamsala with her husband and daughter, sharing their lives with the local people. Under the caring and professional guidance of Usha, many students now enjoy the holistic benefits of Reiki, meditation and yoga received from her.

Crystal Healing

The function of Crystals are to transform and amplify various types of energy into biological energy that rebalances and re-energizes our biological system on the cellular level, as well as on our emotional, mental, and spiritual levels. The biological transfer of energy theory is based on the belief that the body is a series of synchronous, oscillating, solid and liquid crystal systems to which our crystal healing techniques are able to transfer energy directly, as from one crystal to another.

On the emotional and mental level, crystals linked with our own thought forms, have the ability to amplify energy so that our emotional and mental states are harmonized and stored negative thought forms are released. Crystal Healers uses the analogy of a computer mind which can be cleared of non-functional programs and reprogrammed by creating a strong new thought form. The strength of crystals in this process is that when they are appropriately linked with the mind, they amplify emotional and thought form energy in a way that has the power to easily create new and healthy mental and emotional programs. The crystals amplify our ability to visualize and is a major way or type of language that can communicate with and redesign our mind like a computer.

Course Overview

The course will identify the therapeutic value of each Crystal, their care and cleansing techniques, how to identify and attune master crystals and power stones. Use of laser wands in psychic surgery and how to make a Crystal Energy Grid.

Crystals are natural healing tools that can be used by health practitioners to accelerate and supplement their own methods. Since the human body is a series of energy systems crystals can be used for adjusting and balancing them. Crystal healing tools are available at the centre and include crystal healing, grid crystal stick crystal ball, crystal pendulum and crystal pyramid crystal mala.
